Art Unit: 1761

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a dispensation , classified in class 222, subclass 129.
- II. Claims 10-20, drawn to a method involving dispensing a beverage, classified in class 426, subclass 594.
- III. Claims 21-24, drawn to a beverage package, classified in class 222, subclass 129.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus/packaging assembly for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus/packaging assembly may be used to produce a non-edible product for example mixing two paints for a particular color or to produce a food product other than a beverage, such as for example, dispensing two types of cake batter or frosting and mixing same to provide a batter or frosting with a swirl design.

3. Inventions I and III are related as combination (dispensation apparatus) and subcombination (packaging assembly). Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination and, for example, does not require that the compartments be fitted with different orifices to accommodate the differences in viscosity between the materials of the respective compartments. The subcombination has separate utility such as a device that could be used without a pump assembly and may be used by hand (as in squeezing) or held up upside down for dispensing by using gravity.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each group is not required for each of the other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
